Go to the Red Cross Pharmacy and Parlor Drug Store for delicious Saturday candy, only 29c per pound box.
Miss Agnes Grinn of Almonte, Ontario, has returned to the city and is residing with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Noonan.
McWhorter's line of samples for spring suits and overcoats, tailor-made, have arrived, and we are ready to receive your order.
The Calumets took three straight strings from the "Big Swedes" in a matched bowling game at Alexander's alleys last evening.
Ask us to send you an Edison or Victor talking machine on trial before you buy. We have the best line in the city. Averill Music Co.
Two ice trotting events were scheduled to be run off at Montpelier this afternoon, in which Barre horses, John L. and Ethel C. were entered.
The basket ball game which was scheduled to be played here Monday between Tufts college and Goddard has been canceled by the college team.
The new general manager of the Central Vermont R. R., G. C. Jones, with the superintendent of construction, W. E. Mullins, was in Barre during a tour of investigation.
A regular meeting of the Queen of the Forest Circle Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. Let all the officers be present. Refreshments will be served and a social time after the meeting. Chief Corp., Annie Scott.
Misses Alice Pape, Helen Marsh and Carrie Draper were hostesses at a most enjoyable reception at the K. of C. hall last evening. About forty people were present. Mrs. C. W. Benedict was cateress for the occasion.
The class of 1905 of Spaulding high school enjoyed a sleigh ride to Williams-town last evening. The party went directly to the hall, where lunch was served and games and dancing enjoyed until early this morning.
There will be something doing in the Montpelier armory next Friday evening when the boys teams of Goddard and Montpelier seminaries meet. The Montpelier seminary and Montpelier high school girls will also play.
Miss Grace Ingalls, teacher in the Summer street school, has gone home for a week's rest because of a throat trouble. Miss Healey, who has been out of school for a week, returns on Monday to resume her teaching.
Friends of Miss Christina McKeown of this city, who has been critically ill at the Mary Fletcher hospital in Burlington, will be pleased to hear that the doctors pronounce her to be out of danger, although she is still very ill.
The Rev. W. A. Stewart, who was lately appointed field superintendent of the Congregational church of Vermont, will hold a series of evangelistic services at Marshfield. Mr. Stewart comes from Boston, and the office of field superintendent which he occupies, is a new one.
The engine, Arthur Tandy, drawing the early morning train from Montpelier to Barre on the M. & W. R. R., had its troubles with the snowdrifts this morning. The little iron horse butted into a snow drift near Benning's and couldn't go through. It was necessary to go back a mile and get a fresh start before the train got through. It arrived here ten minutes late, something unusual for the "auburnau."
The drill team of Camp 8686, M. W. of A., reorganized last evening with the following officers under the command of Chief Forester Gravelin: George Milne appointed chief forester; Leslie Wright, second sergeant; O. D. Cyr, secretary. These and the following are listed as members of the team: Robert Kerr, Wilfred Marston, Charles Jacques, Daniel Dombrowski, A. B. Frontini, James Brown, John Chesser, John Gravelin, John Defenic and Charles Kenyon.
The chief and the secretary of Clan Gordon, No. 12, called at the home of Mrs. William T. Gillespie on Elm street last evening, and handed her a check for $500; her husband, who died quite recently, having been insured in the order of Scottish Clans for that amount. This is a case that proves the benefit of joining an order whereby you can receive immediate benefits. Mr. Gillespie had only been initiated into the order about forty-eight hours before his death, which resulted after a few hours' sickness.
The Troy, N. Y., Times says of Hadley's moving pictures, which will appear at the Barre opera house under the auspices of the Boy's club: There was a large attendance last evening at the Hadley moving picture exhibition in Music Hall, which was for the benefit of the Troy Police Beneficial and Protective Association. The Hadley pictures are excellent. The objectionable flickering has been done away with and the entertainment was probably the best and most satisfactory ever seen in this city. The selection of scenes was excellent.

The Workingman's Suit!

A great many men work for a living and have no money to throw away. These men demand the best that their money can buy and are willing to pay all a Suit is worth, but no more. This is right. For these men we have a special line of well and strongly made Suits—good, stylish Suits, made from fabrics that will stand rough usage and still retain a genteel appearance. We do a large business in Workingmen's Suits, Trousers and other Clothing, and we give every man full, heaping measure of value for the money he leaves with us. Workingmen's Suits at $7.50, $10.00 or $12.00. Money back if anything is wrong. Prudence and economy sends many a man here for his clothes.

Do You Want the Best FLOUR?

For an All-round Flour, buy Snow Flake. This is one of the highest cost Flours on the market to buy, but the cheapest to use. It has the value and always gives satisfaction. We have handled this Flour for several years with the best of results. Price per barrel, $7.00

For a Pastry Flour, buy White Lily. Made by the same mill as Snow Flake, and it is all right. All of our pastry is made from White Lily. Price per barrel, $6.75

For Bread, buy Marvel Flour. It will make more and better bread to the barrel and hold its moisture longer than any other Bread Flour. All of our Cream Bread is made from Marvel. Price per barrel, $7.00

Rebate Checks given on all cash purchases of Flour, which means a saving of over twenty five cents per barrel.
